THE PIRATE

VOLUME
XXIX

GRANBURY HIGH SCHOOL

GRANBURY, TEXAS

PUBLISHED BY:
THE PIRATE STAFF

FOREWORD

With each year, we all increase our knowledge and understanding of the things around us. We have our parents and teachers as guides, but we must still learn some things from experience.

Along with each experience, comes memories, some happy ones, some sad ones.

It is very fitting that these memories be preserved in the 1969 Pirate. The words and pictures have a special meaning for each of us for we are all a part of them. The worth of "The Pirate" will grow with each passing year.

DEDICATION

MR. GERALD HAYWORTH

The Kind of Man You Are
FRED TOOTHAKER

It's not the sort of job you have,
It's not the work you do;
And not the place you hang your hat
When day is done and through;
It's not the way you've always hitch'd
Your wagon to a star;
The thing that counts the most is just
The kind of man you are.

Because of his understanding of young people, his loyalty to our school, his tireless efforts to be of service and his outstanding accomplishments, we respectfully dedicate the 1969 Pirate to a teacher, sponsor, and coach, Mr. Gerald Hayworth.
